

CONSERVE THE
SOIL, SAYS TAFTCountry Must Provide for Double
Present Population.

PRESIDENT NOT PESSIMISTIC

History of Farming and Farm Products in This Country for Past Fifty-Six Years Is Reviewed by Speaker, Who Said That There Is Need for Intelligent Understanding Among Farmers of the Trend of Events.

Kansas City, Sept. 26.—President Taft's speech to the National Conservation congress was devoted almost exclusively to the conservation of the soil. The president explained that at last year's session of the congress in St. Paul he had expressed at length his views with regard to other phases of conservation, and added that, since congress so far had not deemed it necessary to pass conservation legislation, he would confine himself to the one branch of the subject.

Mr. Taft reviewed the history of farming and farm products in this country for the last fifty-six years, and declared that, while he does not agree with those men who say that in fifty years the United States will be unable to feed its own people, there is need for intelligent understanding among the farmers of the trend of events.

The president said that if the population of the nation increases proportionately in the next fifty years the United States will have double the number of its people.

Must Increase Production.

"It is necessary then," he said, "that not only our acreage but our production per acre must increase proportionately so that our people may be fed. We must realize that the best land and the easiest land to cultivate has been taken up and cultivated, and that the additions to improved lands and to total acreage in the future must be of land much more responsive to prepare tillage. The increase per acre of the production, too, must be steady each year, and each year an increase is more difficult. Still even in the face of these facts there is no occasion for discouragement. We are going to remain as a self-supporting country and raise food enough within our borders to feed our people."

Mr. Taft said that the states should take up the question of increasing the production of farms. Much has been done, he said, through the education in colleges and schools of trained and scientific farmers, and the improvement through such institutions is bound to continue.

Speaking of a proposal to organize a force of 3,000 men to be paid partly by the counties, partly by the states and partly by the federal government, which shall conduct experiments in every county for the education of the farmer, the president said that, while generally he was opposed to such collaboration, he could not conceive of a wiser plan for this particular purpose.

Future Is Hopeful.

"On the whole," said the president, in conclusion, "I think our future is hopeful. I do not share the pessimistic views of many gentlemen whose statistics differ somewhat from mine and who look forward to a strong probability of failure of self-support in food within the lives of persons now living. We may look forward to the middle of this century when 200,000,000 people shall swear fealty to the starry flag as a time when America will still continue to feed her millions and feed them well out of her own soil."

Kansas Greet Taft in Large Numbers at All Stops.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 26.—President Taft arrived in Kansas City after a hurry-up day in Southeastern Kansas, making addresses at eleven little towns of that section, to address the National Conservation congress. The president was tired but happy over the warmth of the reception that the progressive Kansans had given him. The crowds during the day were the largest the president has faced during his travels.

Mr. Taft confined himself largely to the vetoes of the woolen, free list and cotton tariff bills. He told his hearers that he was ready and more than willing to sign any bills reducing the tariff if founded on the report of the tariff board.

"I believe that the present woolen duties are too high," he exclaimed amid applause, "and just as soon as I get adequate information I shall recommend their reduction."

Berthold (N. D.) Farmer Suicides.

Minot, N. D., Sept. 26.—William A. Brown, a prosperous farmer, aged forty-six, living three miles east of Berthold, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart with a forty-four-caliber revolver. Brown was a widower and owned three quarter sections of fine land. He was in good financial condition and had money in the bank. He leaves two children. A hired man, S. W. Nelson, found the body in the granary.

French Battleship Liberte Destroyed in Harbor.

RESCUE WORK IS HURRIED

Accident Result of Fire Which Had Undoubtedly Smoldered Unnoticed for Hours Until it Came in Contact With Powder Magazine—Fatalities Estimated at From 350 to 400 Officers and Men.

Toulon, France, Sept. 26.—Between 350 and 400 officers and men were killed and the French battleship Liberte was totally destroyed when the magazines of the vessel exploded. The battleship Republique was damaged badly, and the battleships Democrite and Vertie also suffered severely from the masses of twisted iron and armor plate hurled upon their decks.

The explosion was preceded by and was the result of an outbreak of fire. The flames reached the magazines before there was time to flood them.

A number of men already have been extricated alive from the wreckage, and hope is strong there are others within the broken hulk who can be reached.

Exactly from what cause or when the fire broke out has not been discovered, but it is believed it had smoldered for hours. The position of the fire made it impossible to flood the magazines; nevertheless efforts to do so were made and finally the commanding officer, realizing that the ship was doomed, ordered the bugler to sound the "sauve que peut" (let him save himself who can), and shouted to the men to jump for their lives.

Many Rescued From Wreck.

The work of rescue was quickly begun. The ambulance station was installed in the arsenal, and Admiral Marin-Darbel, maritime prefect, went out to the wreck and superintended the work of extricating those imprisoned. The first body recovered was that of an officer, which was hauled from under an awning with a boat hook. Forty bodies have been taken out, and ninety-four injured have been transferred to the hospital.

Electric shears, to cut through the plates of the Liberte, and a powerful floating crane, to lift the masses of steel, were used in conjunction with a crew of divers who are at work exploring the interior of the hull.

The Liberte appeared as if her bows had doubled over on the stern. Men buried in that part of the wreckage above the water could be heard groaning and screaming for help, which often the rescuers were unable to give.

Officer Tells Story.

One of the survivors, a warrant officer, said: "The fire broke out in the general store, among cans of oil, turpentine and paint and other inflammables. In spite of every effort the flames reached the coal bunkers, and after that it was difficult to prevent them gaining the powder magazine."

"After the explosion an enormous fragment detached from the bows of the Liberte and other pieces of iron fell on rue Republique, smashing the bridge and plunging between the decks. The bugler of the Liberte was hurled through the air from the ill-fated ship to the deck of the Republique, where he was picked up badly hurt. In his hands he still held the bugle with which he was sounding the alarm."

It now is considered almost established that the disaster was due to the deflagration of "B" powder, as in the case of the Iena.

Coroner's Jury Lays Blame for Collapse of Church.

Wausau, Wis., Sept. 26.—The coroner's jury which has been investigating the cause of the collapse of St. James Catholic church several days ago returned a verdict that the collapse was caused by the crushing of the Northwest pier of the structure which supported one of the columns supporting the dome. The report said the pier was of faulty construction and that the material specified and used was not of the proper kind to support heavy loads.

Albert Schultz, Wausau, one of the men injured in the collapse is dead.

The explosion was heard by occupants of a hotel nearby, but they made no investigation.

AID OF THE POWERS

To Restrain Italy From Hostile Action in Tripoli.

Constantinople, Sept. 26.—The porte has addressed a circular to the Turkish representatives abroad instructing them to invoke the good offices of the powers with a view of restraining Italy from hostile action in Tripoli.

A more tranquil feeling prevails, as it is now known that the reported landing of Italian troops in Tripoli is untrue and the porte has postponed the sailing of transports with war material for Tripoli. Orders have been sent to the Tripolitans to avoid doing anything calculated to disturb good relations or give Italy a pretext for hostile action.

It is expected that the new ambassador, Marquis di Garroni, who will arrive here Oct. 3, will bring a note asking for a settlement of all questions pending between Italy and Turkey.

Paris, Sept. 26.—A dispatch from Palermo to the Temps says that the Italian fleet, consisting of the battleships Napoli, Garibaldi and Roma, with the armored cruisers and other ships reported ready to move against Tripoli, still remain in the harbor of Palermo.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Although Germany has not offered formal mediation, it is learned that she is exerting her best endeavors at Rome and Constantinople to bring about a peaceful settlement of the controversy between Turkey and Italy over Tripoli.

FOUR DIE IN TENEMENT FIRE

Two Men, a Woman and Child Are Suffocated.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Four persons were killed and a score injured when fire broke out in a double four-story brick tenement house here.

The dead are Harry Eglvitch, twenty-four years old; Mrs. Lottie Eglvitch, twenty-one years old; Bessie Eglvitch, six months old; and Samuel Alpert, twenty-four years old.

The fire, which is believed by the police to have been of incendiary origin, started in the basement and rapidly spread to the upper floors occupied by eleven families.

Excitement followed the discovery of the flames and dozens of women and children were rescued with difficulty. Two babies were thrown from an upper window by their frantic mothers and were caught in the arms of pedestrians.

VARIANT VIEWS OF TAFT'S TOUR

Progressive League Officers Are Encouraged.

CLAPP'S REPORT FROM WEST.

Minnesota Senator Says President's Veto of Arizona Statehood Bill Did Him Much Harm—Standing Up For Dr. Wiley Has Proved to Be Popular All Over Country.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 26.—[Special.]—While the newspaper men and others who have been traveling with President Taft say that his reception indicates his popularity, reports continue to be received by the officers of the Progressive league showing that the ideas which they have been pushing are growing more popular and that there are evidences that the president's popularity is waning where the progressives are gaining.

A letter from Senator Clapp of Minnesota, who made a tour of the far west after congress adjourned, says that he finds that President Taft's veto of the Arizona bill is doing him more harm than any other act while president. This is especially the case in California, Oregon and Washington, where the recall is very popular.

Senator Clapp expresses surprise upon finding that progressive ideas are popular in Utah, the home of the Mormon church. Senator Bourne says that he does not regard this as very strange in view of the attitude of the Mormons in Oregon, nearly all of whom have been supporters of the policies for which Oregon is famous. The surprise of Senator Clapp is due to the fact that nearly all the senators representing Mormon constituencies have been opposed to the progressive ideas, Senator Borah of Idaho being about the only exception.

Taft's Popular Action.

Perhaps nothing has increased President Taft's popularity quite so much as his sustaining Dr. Wiley, the pure food expert. Every report received in Washington shows that the president has been heartily indorsed for backing up Wiley and retaining him in office.

There has been some surprise expressed, and the Wiley indorsement is not without a little gall in the honey, because the president never once uttered the slightest criticism of those who were back of the charges against Wiley which the president repudiates. Reprimands were handed out to a number of Wiley's friends and assistants, but nothing was said about the coteries who trumped up the charges against Wiley. However, the fact that President Taft did not sustain these men seems to have caused much favorable comment.

Advice to Culberson.

Just then former Secretary Shaw came along. It is easily understood that Shaw is not pleased with the Taft administration nor with the insurgents, and if it turns out that the Democrats should be successful next year the former Iowa man will not be found doing extra time among the mourners.

"Don't make fools of yourselves," said Shaw to Culberson. "You have a chance next year if you don't throw it away. Remember what Tom Reed said about tariff bills—'There is no danger in an unenacted tariff bill.' It is the bill you make law that will make you trouble. Promise all you want, but perform little. That ought to be easy for the Democrats."

Culberson Didn't Bite.

If Shaw expected to get a rise from the Texas senator he failed. Although the political discussion was general for several minutes, not a word was dropped by Culberson that indicated that he had a single idea. He did not even commit himself as to whether he knew who were Democratic candidates or possibilities. Since Senator Allison died there has been no man in public life who has such a reputation for looking wise and saying nothing as Culberson.

Not a Talker.

"This is the first time in fourteen years that I have asked the house to listen to me for fifteen minutes," was the remarkable statement of Congressman Taylor of Alabama, who wanted to explain a bill in which he was interested. He had scarcely begun when some man tried to break in with a question. No other man has such a record.

Danger of Overwork?

There is danger that some of our officials will be overworked this year. Several announcements have been made that higher officials of the government have been directed to go to Europe and study conditions in different countries as they relate to their duties here. From two to three months these officials will be compelled to work in foreign countries.

For instance, soon after the return of the director of census from abroad it was announced that the assistant director was to be sent over for two months' study of foreign census methods. Many other officials have been sent abroad on just such errands. The traveling expenses of these officials are paid by the government which employs them, so that it must not be inferred that the officials are compelled to lose either salary or expense money during these days in foreign lands.

OFFICIALS ASKED

Officers Permit Sale of Liquor, Says Complaint.

St. Paul, Sept. 26.—Charges that Mayor H. P. Keller, Chief of Police John J. O'Connor and the members of the police commission permit disorderly houses in St. Paul; that they permit liquor to be sold in them illegally; that they have refused to stop this illegal sale; that they permit owners and agents to rent buildings for these purposes; that proprietors of these places systematically pay $100 fine to the city, and that the Hamm Brewing company and other brewers sell liquors to these places, were sent to Governor A. O. Eberhart by James Manahan, attorney for the Methodist Laymen's Association of St. Paul.

The charges are the culmination of the fight against the liquor selling in disorderly houses begun by the laymen last spring. They were adopted finally at a meeting of the committee. In the complaint the governor is asked to fix a public hearing on the charges, and in the event of their proof, to direct the attorney general to take appropriate proceedings to remove Mayor Keller, Chief O'Connor and the members of the police commission.

Frank J. Clemans, Ernest W. Young and Miles E. Harben, in their own behalf and in behalf of the Laymen's association, are named as the complainants, and Herbert P. Keller, Mayor of St. Paul; John J. WITNESS SAYS IN WAS PLCT

Claims Men Were Paid by Western Federation.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 26.—Testifying that her husband and John W. Butler, a musician of the Fourth cavalry, were pals in a plot to blow up the Homestake mine and that they had been employed by the Western Federation of Miners, Mrs. Robert Emmett O'Grady, wife of one of the defendants, sprung a sensation in the Butler trial in the circuit court. Butler, with O'Grady, is charged with attempting to blow up a Homestake mill with Pettibone dope in April, 1910.

Mrs. O'Grady declared that Butler came to them in Fall River, Colo., saying he was a representative of the federation, and that O'Grady was wanted to blow up the mine. She said they accompanied Butler to Lead for that purpose after Butler had instructed O'Grady as to the use of a secret identification card. She further declared that O'Grady told her he was to be paid $1,000 for the job, and that when he failed in this he directed his attention to the mill.

Illinois Central Employees at Memphis Quit Work.

THREATEN COMPLETE TIEUP

J. J. Carrigan, President of Clerks' Union Issues Mandate and Nearly a Thousand of His Followers Cease Work—Sympathetic Strike Among Workmen Follows Move by Clerks and Action Is Taken at New Orleans and Jackson, Miss.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 26.—If an order issued by J. J. Carrigan, president of the clerks' union of the Illinois Central railroad, is obeyed, all members of that organization throughout the entire system will strike.

In Memphis not only the clerks but practically every member of the employees' federation in the local freight sheds and shops of the Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroads left their desks and tools. That the walkout of the shopmen at Memphis is initiatory to a general movement of organized labor on the Illinois Central and its subsidiary lines is believed.

Tieup Will Be Complete.

Representatives of the Striking employees assert the tieup will be complete. S. S. Norris, general superintendent of the Illinois Central, declared that the railroad will be in a position to cope with the situation.

More than 500 men are out here. The clerks first left their work and then the machinists, boilermakers, blacksmiths, carmen, sheet metal workers and the unionized laborers. Clerks at the freight sheds were replaced by employees from the general and commercial offices.

"In December, 1910," Mr. Carrigan declared, "officials of the Illinois Central entered into an agreement with the clerks employed on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad by which recognition was granted the union south of Memphis. The next day we were notified that the agreement had been annulled."

Clerks Out at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 26.—What is believed will be a general strike of organized railway clerks of the Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad systems was started here when nearly 300 clerks engaged at the various yards, depots and offices of the two systems in this city walked out, resulting practically in a complete tieup of business at the affected stations.

Sixty-one Quit at Jackson.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 26.—Sixty-one clerks, weighmen, messengers and other employees of the Illinois Central railroad at Jackson have gone on strike.

WICHITA MAYOR RECALLED

Objection to Policy in Contemplating Purchase of Water Works Plant.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 26.—Mayor J. H. Graham and Commissioner E. M. Leach were recalled by the voters of Wichita at a special recall election. Commissioner R. B. Campbell, against whom the recall also was directed, was re-elected by a majority of 35 votes.

Dr. W. W. Minick was the successful candidate for mayor, polling 1,885 more votes than Graham. J. H. Harts defeated Commissioner Leach by 1,300. The Socialist candidates polled a small vote.

One of the charges on which the recall was based was the policy of the administration in contemplating the purchase of a privately owned water works plant for Wichita, instead of establishing a new water system. Allegations also were made of the neglect of the enforcement of the prohibition law.

CONSERVE THE
SOIL, SAYS TAFTCountry Must Provide for Double
Present Population.

PRESIDENT NOT PESSIMISTIC

History of Farming and Farm Products in This Country for Past Fifty-Six Years Is Reviewed by Speaker, Who Said That There Is Need for Intelligent Understanding Among Farmers of the Trend of Events.

Kansas City, Sept. 26.—President Taft's speech to the National Conservation congress was devoted almost exclusively to the conservation of the soil. The president explained that at last year's session of the congress in St. Paul he had expressed at length his views with regard to other phases of conservation, and added that, since congress so far had not deemed it necessary to pass conservation legislation, he would confine himself to the one branch of the subject.

Mr. Taft reviewed the history of farming and farm products in this country for the last fifty-six years, and declared that, while he does not agree with those men who say that in fifty years the United States will be unable to feed its own people, there is need for intelligent understanding among the farmers of the trend of events.

The president said that if the population of the nation increases proportionately in the next fifty years the United States will have double the number of its people.

Must Increase Production.

"It is necessary then," he said, "that not only our acreage but our production per acre must increase proportionately so that our people may be fed. We must realize that the best land and the easiest land to cultivate has been taken up and cultivated, and that the additions to improved lands and to total acreage in the future must be of land much more responsive to prepare tillage. The increase per acre of the production, too, must be steady each year, and each year an increase is more difficult. Still even in the face of these facts there is no occasion for discouragement. We are going to remain as a self-supporting country and raise food enough within our borders to feed our people."

Mr. Taft said that the states should take up the question of increasing the production of farms. Much has been done, he said, through the education in colleges and schools of trained and scientific farmers, and the improvement through such institutions is bound to continue.

Speaking of a proposal to organize a force of 3,000 men to be paid partly by the counties, partly by the states and partly by the federal government, which shall conduct experiments in every county for the education of the farmer, the president said that, while generally he was opposed to such collaboration, he could not conceive of a wiser plan for this particular purpose.

Future Is Hopeful.

"On the whole," said the president, in conclusion, "I think our future is hopeful. I do not share the pessimistic views of many gentlemen whose statistics differ somewhat from mine and who look forward to a strong probability of failure of self-support in food within the lives of persons now living. We may look forward to the middle of this century when 200,000,000 people shall swear fealty to the starry flag as a time when America will still continue to feed her millions and feed them well out of her own soil."

Kansans Greet Taft in Large Numbers
at All Stops.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 26.—President Taft arrived in Kansas City after a hurry-up day in Southeastern Kansas, making addresses at eleven little towns of that section, to address the National Conservation congress. The president was tired but happy over the warmth of the reception that the progressive Kansans had given him. The crowds during the day were the largest the president has faced during his travels.

Mr. Taft confined himself largely to the vetoes of the woolen, free list and cotton tariff bills. He told his hearers that he was ready and more than willing to sign any bills reducing the tariff if founded on the report of the tariff board.

"I believe that the present woolen duties are too high," he exclaimed amid applause, "and just as soon as I get adequate information I shall recommend their reduction."

Minot, N. D., Sept. 26.—William A. Brown, a prosperous farmer, aged forty-six, living three miles east of Berthold, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart with a forty-four-caliber revolver. Brown was a widower and owned three quarter sections of fine land. He was in good financial condition and had money in the bank. He leaves two children. A hired man, S. W. Nelson, found the body in the granary.

AID OF THE POWERSTo Restrain Italy From Hostile
Action in Tripoli.

Constantinople, Sept. 26.—The porte has addressed a circular to the Turkish representatives abroad instructing them to invoke the good offices of the powers with a view of restraining Italy from hostile action in Tripoli.

A more tranquil feeling prevails, as it is now known that the reported landing of Italian troops in Tripoli is untrue and the porte has postponed the sailing of transports with war material for Tripoli. Orders have been sent to the Tripolitans to avoid doing anything calculated to disturb good relations or give Italy a pretext for hostile action.

It is expected that the new ambassador, Marquis di Garroni, who will arrive here Oct. 3, will bring a note asking for a settlement of all questions pending between Italy and Turkey.

Paris, Sept. 26.—A dispatch from Palermo to the Temps says that the Italian fleet, consisting of the battleships Napoli, Garibaldi and Roma, with the armored cruisers and other ships reported ready to move against Tripoli, still remain in the harbor of Palermo.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Although Germany has not offered formal mediation, it is learned that she is exerting her best endeavors at Rome and Constantinople to bring about a peaceful settlement of the controversy between Turkey and Italy over Tripoli.

FOUR DIE IN TENEMENT FIRE

Two Men, a Woman and Child Are Suffocated.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Four persons were killed and a score injured when fire broke out in a double four-story brick tenement house here.

The dead are Harry Eglovitch, twenty-four years old; Mrs. Lottie Eglovitch, twenty-one years old; Besse Eglovitch, six months old; and Samuel Alpert, twenty-four years old.

The fire, which is believed by the police to have been of incendiary origin, started in the basement and rapidly spread to the upper floors occupied by eleven families.

Excitement followed the discovery of the flames and dozens of women and children were rescued with difficulty. Two babies were thrown from an upper window by their frantic mothers and were caught in the arms of pedestrians.

CLAPP'S REPORT FROM WEST.

Minnesota Senator Says President's Veto of Arizona Statehood Bill Did Him Much Harm—Standing Up For Dr. Wiley Has Proved to Be Popular All Over Country.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 26.—[Special.]—While the newspaper men and others who have been traveling with President Taft say that his reception indicates his popularity, reports continue to be received by the officers of the Progressive league showing that the ideas which they have been pushing are growing more popular and that there are evidences that the president's popularity is waning where the progressives are gaining.

A letter from Senator Clapp of Minnesota, who made a tour of the far west after congress adjourned, says that he finds that President Taft's veto of the Arizona bill is doing him more harm than any other act while president. This is especially the case in California, Oregon and Washington, where the recall is very popular.

Senator Clapp expresses surprise upon finding that progressive ideas are popular in Utah, the home of the Mormon church. Senator Bourne says that he does not regard this as very strange in view of the attitude of the Mormons in Oregon, nearly all of whom have been supporters of the policies for which Oregon is famous. The surprise of Senator Clapp is due to the fact that nearly all the senators representing Mormon constituencies have been opposed to the progressive ideas, Senator Borah of Idaho being about the only exception.

Taft's Popular Action.

Perhaps nothing has increased President Taft's popularity quite so much as his sustaining Dr. Wiley, the pure food expert. Every report received in Washington shows that the president has been heartily indorsed for backing up Wiley and retaining him in office.

There has been some surprise expressed, and the Wiley indorsement is not without a little glint in the honey, because the president never once uttered the slightest criticism of those who were back of the charges against Wiley which the president repudiates. Reprimands were handed out to a number of Wiley's friends and assistants, but nothing was said about the coterie who trumped up the charges against Wiley. However, the fact that President Taft did not sustain these men seems to have caused much favorable comment.

Advice to Culberson.

Just then former Secretary Shaw came along. It is easily understood that Shaw is not pleased with the Taft administration nor with the insurgents, and if it turns out that the Democrats should be successful next year the former Iowa man will not be found doing extra time among the mourners.

"Don't make fools of yourselves," said Shaw to Culberson. "You have a chance next year if you don't throw it away. Remember what Tom Reed said about tariff bills—'There is no danger in an unexecuted tariff bill.' It is the bill you make law that will make you trouble. Promise all you want, but perform little. That ought to be easy for the Democrats."

Culberson Didn't Bite.
If Shaw expected to get a rise from the Texas senator he failed. Although the political discussion was general for several minutes, not a word was dropped by Culberson that indicated that he had a single idea. He did not even commit himself as to whether he knew who were Democratic candidates or possibilities. Since Senator Allison died there has been no man in public life who has such a reputation for looking wise and saying nothing as Culberson.

Not a Talker.

"This is the first time in fourteen years that I have asked the house to listen to me for fifteen minutes," was the remarkable statement of Congressman Taylor of Alabama, who wanted to explain a bill in which he was interested. He had scarcely begun when some man tried to break in with a question. No other man has such a record.

Danger of Overwork?

There is danger that some of our officials will be overworked this year. Several announcements have been made that higher officials of the government have been directed to go to Europe and study conditions in different countries as they relate to their duties here. From two to three months these officials will be compelled to work in foreign countries.

For instance, soon after the return of the director of census from abroad it was announced that the assistant director was to be sent over for two months' study of foreign census methods. Many other officials have been sent abroad on just such errands. The traveling expenses of these officials are paid by the government which employs them, so that it must not be inferred that the officials are compelled to lose either salary or expense money during these days in foreign lands.

REMOVAL OF CITY
OFFICIALS ASKEDOfficers Permit Sale of Liquor,
Says Complaint.

St. Paul, Sept. 26.—Charges that Mayor H. P. Keller, Chief of Police John J. O'Connor and the members of the police commission permit disorderly houses in St. Paul; that they permit liquor to be sold in them illegally; that they have refused to stop this illegal sale; that they permit owners and agents to rent buildings for these purposes; that proprietors of these places systematically pay $100 fine to the city, and that the Hamm Brewing company and other brewers sell liquors to these places, were sent to Governor A. O. Eberhart by James Manahan, attorney for the Methodist Laymen's Association of St. Paul.

The charges are the culmination of the fight against the liquor selling in disorderly houses begun by the laymen last spring. They were adopted finally at a meeting of the committee. In the complaint the governor is asked to fix a public hearing on the charges, and in the event of their proof, to direct the attorney general to take appropriate proceedings to remove Mayor Keller, Chief O'Connor and the members of the police commission.

Frank J. Clemans, Ernest W. Young and Miles E. Harben, in their own behalf and in behalf of the Laymen's association, are named as the complainants, and Herbert P. Keller, Mayor of St. Paul; John J. O'Connor, chief of police; Albert W. Lindeke, president; Fred M. Catlin, vice president, and W. A. Hardenbergh, L. L. May, and Percy Vittum, members of the police commission, as respondents.

Hopes of an adjustment delayed the suit up to now, according to Elmer H. Adams of counsel for the Peavey company.

Claims Men Were Paid by Western Federation.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 26.—Testifying that her husband and John V. Butler, a musician of the Fourth cavalry, were pals in a plot to blow up the Homestead mine and that they had been employed by the Western Federation of Miners, Mrs. Robert Emmett O'Grady, wife of one of the defendants, sprung a sensation in the Butler trial in the circuit court. Butler, with O'Grady, is charged with attempting to blow up a Homestead mill with Pettibone dope in April, 1910. Mrs. O'Grady declared that Butler came to them in Fall River, Colo., saying he was a representative of the federation, and that O'Grady was wanted to blow up the mine. She said they accompanied Butler to Lead for that purpose after Butler had instructed O'Grady as to the use of a secret identification card. She further declared that O'Grady told her he was to be paid $1,000 for the job, and that when he failed in this he directed his attention to the mill.

Stolypin's Slayer Hanged.

Kiev, Russia, Sept. 26.—Dmitry Bogrof, the assassin of Premier Stolypin, who was condemned to death by court-martial, was hanged here. Before his execution the young man asked that he might see a rabbi, but he refused this consolation when informed that the interview must be in the presence of officials.

Four-Year-Old Killed by Wagon.

Ray, N. D., Sept. 26.—Childish glee at the return home in the evening of his father resulted in the death of the four-year-old son of William Chamness. The boy ran out to the road to meet his father, who was hauling wheat, and tripped and fell under the wagon. The front wheels passed over the boy's body, killing him almost instantly.

Illinois Central Employees at
Memphis Quit Work.

THREATEN COMPLETE TIIEUP

J. J. Carrigan, President of Clerks' Union Issues Mandate and Nearly a Thousand of His Followers Cease Work—Sympathetic Strike Among Workmen Follows Move by Clerks and Action Is Taken at New Orleans and Jackson, Miss.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 26.—If an order issued by J. J. Carrigan, president of the clerks' union of the Illinois Central railroad, is obeyed, all members of that organization throughout the entire system will strike.

In Memphis not only the clerks but practically every member of the employees' federation in the local freight sheds and shops of the Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroads left their desks and tools. That the walkout of the shopmen at Memphis is initiatory to a general movement of organized labor on the Illinois Central and its subsidiary lines is believed.

Tieup Will Be Complete.

Representatives of the striking employees assert the tieup will be complete. S. S. Norris, general superintendent of the Illinois Central, declared that the railroad will be in a position to cope with the situation. More than 500 men are out here. The clerks first left their work and then the machinists, boilermakers, blacksmiths, carmen, sheet metal workers and the unionized laborers. Clerks at the freight sheds were replaced by employees from the general and commercial offices.

"In December, 1910," Mr. Carrigan declared, "officials of the Illinois Central entered into an agreement with the clerks employed on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad by which recognition was granted the union south of Memphis. The next day we were notified that the agreement had been annulled."

Clerks Out at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 26.—What is believed will be a general strike of organized railway clerks of the Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad systems was started here when nearly 300 clerks engaged at

CEMENT PAVING ON THIRD AVENUE

Ritari Bros. are in the Last Block and Will soon Finish Their Seven Blocks Job

LARGE CEMENT MIXER USED

Sand is Hauled Down M. & I.—30 Men are Employed by the Firm of Contractors

Ritari Brothers, the cement contractors, have made such good progress with their work of paving Third avenue that the firm is now on the last block and only half a block from the finishing point near Ash avenue. When completed Ritari Brothers will have laid seven blocks of this paving and Northeast Brainerd will have the longest stretch of cement paving in the city and twice as long as the south and north sides possess.

The paving is cut in 25 foot sections and the cuts will be filled with tar. These cuts are made to prevent cracking should the big sections of paving heave in the winter time. Eighteen men are employed on the street work, four in the sand pit and several are engaged in loading sand. The sand is shipped on the M. I. Railway and gathered from a pit on the west side of the river.

The firm is using its large steam cement mixer, a monster affair which has a large crane and bucket carrying the mixed product a distance of over 25 feet. With a full force this machine can mix and handle enough cement to lay a thousand yards in 10 hours.

An inspector is constantly at the work and keeps tab of the mixing and laying and the residents of Northeast Brainerd along the avenue also check up the contractors and as the firm is doing the best work it can, this section of the city is assured of a fine street, the best in the city and one which has a more even grade than any seven blocks of sidewalk in the city.

The work will be entirely finished this week. The firm is desirous of putting in a bid for the construction of the cement work on the bridge across the Mississippi whenever that contract is open for bidding.

TO PAINT A PORTRAIT

Col. Freeman Thorp, the distinguished portrait painter who makes his home at Hubert, returned this noon from Crosby where he secured an important commission to paint the portrait of George H. Crosby, the prominent mining man and town-site founder.

Col. Thorp will return to Crosby on Thursday to give his client his first sitting. It is not known at this time if the picture is to be a three-quarter length or bust picture. Mr. Crosby will prove an admirable subject and if the portrait gives satisfaction it will be the means of securing a large number of commissions from the prominent iron men and investors of the Cuyuna iron range.

NEW TOWN ON CUYUNA RANGE

Fitzer Brewing Co., of Duluth, is After a Lease of Land For a Large Hotel

ON FLYNN'S LAND IN 28-47-29

A Townsite May be Instituted Close to the Mines to be Established Near Flynn's Lake

Michael Flynn, owner of some of the richest ore lands on the north range of the Cuyuna iron range north of Ironton and Crosby in section 28, township 47, and range 29, is authority for the statement that the Fitzer Brewing Co., of Duluth, contemplates erecting a large, modern hotel on land near Flynn's lake on his ground, and that a store and post office will soon follow.

The Twin City Mining Co. and the Gorham-Garbet Co., of Minneapolis, have the mineral rights of this land under lease and have drilled it until satisfied of its richness.

The land in question lies two and one-half miles north of Portage lake and near school No. 44.

SHERIFF CASEY DESCRIBES "JIM"

County Attorney Albert F. Pratt, of Anoka County, Gives Additional Description

RESEMBLED "BILLY SMITH"

In General Description Smith Was the Same But Scars and Complexion Were Different

Following up the idea advanced by some that the "Billy Smith" who committed suicide in the city lockup was none other than "Jim", the farm hand who was the principal in the tragedy near Anoka, the Dispatch wrote for detailed descriptions of "Jim" and received the following statement from John Casey, sheriff of Anoka county.

"Jim" is the man who murdered in cold blood a man and murdered and ravished a woman in Anoka county on September 12. He was last seen in St. Paul that night. His only known name is "Jim." He is probably Scotch or Irish and claims that he trapped in Wisconsin last winter. He wears an up-to-date shoe, a 7 or 7 1/2.

$200 reward is offered for his arrest and delivery to the authorities of Anoka county. His description is as follows:

"Young man, well set up, soldierly bearing, 26 to 28, smooth face, five feet six to five feet seven, weight 145 to 155 pounds, medium to dark hair, complexion medium, inclined to be sallow, swinging gait, swings his shoulders, quick and snappy in movements, pleasant spoken, fair education, neatly dressed, last seen in black, crush hat, peaked; dark gray coat, probably checked; yellowish shirt. Wears corduroy suit and pants at times. Weight and height is approximate.

Note—Has a large scar under jaw, almost certain left jaw, in the soft portion just under the jaw, apparently from a cut, stitched, and healed with puckered edges, extends from about the angle of the jaw, forwards; not very noticeable except when he turns his head or raises his head. Look for the scar.

His eyes will not meet yours but will shift from side to side."

The following letter from Albert F. Pratt, the county attorney of Anoka, gives additional information regarding the physical appearance and wearing apparel of "Jim." In his communication County Attorney Pratt says:

Sept. 25th, 1911.
Brainerd Dispatch,
Brainerd, Minn.
Dear Sir:—

The enclosed is an accurate description of Jim, dug out with a good deal of care, except that possibly the scar may be a burned scar, with two little teats or bunches near the back part, on the upper edge, smooth scar, instead of a cut scar.

Two who saw him remember it as a burnt scar. It does not show much if at all from the front, looking him in the face, but shows as he turns his head or raises his chin.

It runs from the angle of the jaw towards the chin, some say as long as two fingers, in the soft part of the throat just under the jaw.

He may have been wearing some stolen underwear or shirt, with the laundry mark "R. H. C.S." or "Rhodes" or "R. H." or "B. H." He stole a watch, gold filled case, hunting case, probably Columbia make.

Case number 15819.
Movement number 2695764.

Probably pawned the watch. Did not get the number until Saturday, when we found an account book by accident.

I wired the chief Thursday to take pictures at my expense, as the sheriff and I were both on the road.

If it checks up in good shape, can send a man to look at him.

I am inclined to think that this man is also wanted in Wisconsin for murder, $750 on him there.

Jim did not talk with any brogue, was apparently American born, but was either English, Irish or Scotch, or mixture.

His shoes were up to date, this summer's style, next to highest heels, 7 1/2, possible 7 or 8, but just fitted mine, which are 7 1/2.

Those who claim it was a burned scar say it was whitish, except when he was excited, when it would change to red, as such scars do.

Both sides are sure, one that it was a cut, like his throat had been lanced or cut with a knife, and stitched, the other that it was a smooth burn, with rough edges at one end.

Hastily,
ALBERT F. PRATT.

Deputy Coroner D. E. Whitney viewed the body of Smith this morning and after an exhaustive examination said: "In general appearance and clothing he seems to resemble 'Jim,' but the scars and the complexion are not the same as the much wanted Anoka man."

Smith has a scar under his chin on the right side of his neck and also an old scar on his cheek. It was these scars which first caused many to think that he bore a resemblance to "Jim."

Deputy Coroner Whitney will take a picture of the remains and send it to the Anoka authorities.

CONGRESSMAN TO SPEAK

Hon. C. A. Lindbergh Will Deliver an Address at Crow Wing County Fair Thursday

As an added attraction at the Crow Wing county fair at Pequot Congressman C. A. Lindbergh, of Little Falls, has been secured to deliver an address. It is not known what the subject will be, but the managers of the fair say it will be a message to the people of this district and therefore of the greatest interest.

The fair dates are September 27, 28 and 29. The Unity band of Brainerd has been engaged to play. Two big ball games are to be played and the one between the Brainerd Ramblers and Emily will be for a purse of $75. There will be dancing Thursday and Friday evening. The horse races have some good entries and President George Stevens and Secretary Olaf Olson are bending all energies to make the fair the biggest exposition Crow Wing county has ever saw.

"MICHAEL'S"

AFRAID OF BEING ASSASSINATED

A. G. Rutledge, Bemidji Correspondent of Dumas Trial, in Serious Predicament

WARNED BY INSURANCE LADY

Two Attorneys and Rutledge Were Said to be Marked for the Secret Assassin's Bullets

Reports, secret in their nature, have just reached Brainerd, of the dire straits in which A. G. Rutledge, the prolific Bemidji correspondent reporting the Dumas trial, finds himself immured in.

Rutledge is keeping a weather eye open on every development of the famous case and daily supplies a thriller from the north end of the state where the trial is under way. Any stranger appearing in Bemidji is watched by Rutledge with a hawk eye as it may furnish a clue for a new development.

When a demure, handsome, well dressed woman, ostensibly selling life insurance, made her appearance in Bemidji, Mr. Rutledge had a sneaking idea that she was a detective of some kind watching a new angle of the celebrated case. And his suspicions seemed to have a solid foundation when the woman approached him and talked life insurance for a while and then said:

"Mr. Rutledge, you ought to take out a policy for $20,000. You need it in justice to your family. I do not wish to alarm you, but let me tell you in all confidence that you and two prominent attorneys in the conduct of this trial are marked for assassination.

Rutledge did not wait to take out a policy but ran and, in strict confidence told the two lawyers what was in store for them and then flew to the nearest hardware store and bought a piece of armor or boiler plate and had it sewed in his vest by a tailor. He purchased three 38 caliber automatics and strapped them to his waist and waited for the inevitable.

But the inevitable did not happen, for some of the fun loving attorneys, who wished to give Rutledge a sensation and material for a new story, had given the insurance lady $3 to tell the mysterious story to Rutledge and when he reads this he will take off his shooting armament and boiler plate and again use his fountain pen as his only weapon.

It has been worth all of $3 to see Rutledge, a veritable walking arsenal, as he scanned the horizon waiting for the expected fusillade of bullets which was to lay him low in a gory mess.

Awful Bad Break

There was a hog case on in the Minneapolis court the other day, and when the young attorney arose to address the jury he was out to make an impression. Young attorneys, working hard, should have a case of golden grain belt beers at home, to aid digestion and balance the nerves for the work of the day. "Always Ready for Company"

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny—unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used.

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish one-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use

State of Minnesota to George Syreen and all persons interested in the giving or ratification of an option to explore and prospect for iron ore and taking of a mining lease on certain land belonging to said minor:
The petition of Amanda G. Syreen, as Guardian of the above named minor, having been duly filed in this Court, representing, among other things, that on the 27th day of March, 1911, she believed it was necessary and for the best interests of the person and estate of said minor and of all persons interested therein, and still believes so for the reasons set out in said petition, and that pursuant thereto, as such guardian of said minor, she made and entered into a written agreement whereby and wherein there was given to one John A. Redfern, his heirs and assigns, an option for period of twelve months to prospect and explore for iron ore and other minerals on certain lands described in said petition in which said minor holds an undivided interest therein, together with the right and privilege or option to take a mining lease thereon for the period of fifty (50) years, on a royalty basis as in said petition described, and that the option or written contract so given by said guardian to said John A. Redfern, under date of March 27, 1911, be ratified and confirmed by an order of this Court and for a license to said Amanda G. Syreen to make and execute the lease therein specified and described, as guardian of said minor, in case said John A. Redfern, or the persons holding his interest, should exercise their rights under said option, and demand the making of a lease therein provided for.
Now, Therefore, you and each of you, are hereby cited and required to show cause, any day before the next term of Court, at the Probate Court Room in the County Court House, in the city of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing, State of Minnesota, on the 4th day of October, 1911, at ten o'clock A. M., why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.
Witness the Judge of said Court and the Seal of said Court this 12th day of September, 1911.

Keeps Your Stove "Always Ready for Company"

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny—unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used. Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish one-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use on your parlor stove, kitchen stove or gas stove. Get a can from your hardware or stove dealer. If you do not find it better than any other stove polish you have ever used before, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. But we feel sure you will agree with the thousands of other up-to-date women who are now using Black Silk Stove Polish and who say it is the "best stove polish ever made."

BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH

LIQUID OR PASTE ONE QUALITY

Be sure to get the genuine. Black Silk Stove Polish costs you no more than the ordinary kind. Keep your grates, registers, fenders and stove pipes bright and free from rusting by using BLACK SILK ANODIZING ENAMEL. Brush free with each can of enamel only. Use BLACK SILK METAL POLISH for silverware, nickel, tinware or brass. It works quickly, easily, and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.
